SUPERINTENDENT E. T. & VA. RAILBOAD.-The traveling public of East Tennessee are well acquainted with Mr. J. B. Hoxsie, Superintendent of the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad. Mr. Hoxsic is esteemed by all who know him in Tennesset or elsewhere as a superior railroad officer. He is unremitting in attention to the comfort and safety of passengers and the interests of the road. In fa few railroad men are as popular with these w ravel as Hoxie. He is courteous and accommod ting to all with whom he comes in contact. To hi numerous friends it will be gratifying intelligen that he has been the recipient of a magnificent pres ant. On the 4th of July Mr. Horsie, was completed "surprised in his castle" by about twenty of th employees of the road, who delivered to him a beautiful solid silver tea set, as a assimonial from sixtyone of the employees of the road. The presentation speech was made by Mr. James R. Ogden. The whole affair was so managed that the surprise of the Superintendent was perfect.

Our popular jeweler, Mr. Geo. H. Smith, was the getter-up of the ten set, and got a good article, as he always does.

THE TENNESSEE WOOLEN FACTORY .- We take much pleasure in announcing the fact that a Woolen Factory is about to commence operations in th place. It is intended to weave Jeans, Tweeds, Linseys, &c., &c., including a variety of the woole fabrics now worn in this region, both by men at women. A few looms will be in operation soor and arrangements are complete for an increase capacity as fast and as far as the demands of th markets will warrant. The necessary machinery has been ordered, and will soon be here, for the man ufacture of one hundred yards daily, which we hop will soon be increased to supply a demand for least ten thousand yards per day.

We have full faith in the success of the enterpri from what we know of the wants of our people, and from what we know of those at the head of the

A LETTER FROM AN OLD TRAVELER.-Messis Prince, Walton & Co., Gentlemen:-As you ar aware I have been engaged up to a short time pa as traveling agent for J. C. Ayer & Co.

I was taken very sick with a billious attack whi traveling in the State of Indians. I had take Aver's pills before for the same difficulty, but wit no good effect. A traveling friend who happened to be stopping at the same hotel recommended or to try some Roback's Pills. I confess frankly that I had no confidence in them at the time. the importunities of my friend I was persuaded take them; and with astonishing effect they entirely removed the bile, and operated on the liver so effectually that in a day I was as well as usual. I unbesitatingly recommend them be the best pills

Judge Honk's Card.

We call special attention to the Card of Hon. I C. Houk, Judge of the 17th Judicial Circuit. We have only space this week to state that we are per sonally acquainted with a majority of the parties who substantiate Judge Houk's statement, and vouch for them as perfectly reliable men, whose character for integrity are not inferior to that of any citizen of Tennessee. We know that several of the partie differ with him in politics, and are not, therefor prejudiced in his favor.

We also invite attention to the fearless, forcible and patriotic speech (published in this paper) delivered by the Judge on the th of July, in the Capitol at Nashville. The magnificient Hall of th House of Representatives was crowded, and during the delivery of the speech we saw but one person leave the House, that one "B. Frazier, of Knox. Frazier had a right to leave. Houk's denunciation of treason and traitors was a personal attack upor

A Card.

In the Knexville Commercial of the 13th, a lying statement is made. This filthy sheet says

"We learn from gentlemen who were present whe it occurred, that on Tuesday last, at Clinton, as soon as the Circuit Court adjourned, Judge Houk deseended from the Benck and became clamerous the Mr. R. J. Jarnagin, who was present as a defendar in Houk's Court, should at once be mobbed and hung. It was only through the determined, unflinching bravery of the Sheriff of Anderson county assisted by a few resolute men, that the suggestic and aim of His Honor (!) was not carried out.

Now this is so infamously false that the most thieving rebel in the South would hesitate for a long while before giving credence to it, although it emimates from a source infinitely meaner than the lowest

As to the "gentlemen" who gave this information I pronounce them liars and scoundrels, equally a mean as the dirty pap who edits the Knoxville Commercial.

There was no attempt to raise any difficulty b what I at once took measures to suppress it, as those who assert to the contrary are infinitely mean than the infuriated mob who crucified the Messia and have by their acts become the propagators falsehood.

And I submit as a complete vindication of myse against the slanders of the "male spider" sheet Knoxville, and the cowardly attacks of disguisrebels, the following statements of those who we present at the time referred to, and who are capable of speaking for themselves. It shows who are the pilfering wretches who d sire to injure me, in order to sid the rebel cause

East Termessee: We, the undersigned, who were present at the time it is alleged Judge Houk elamored to have R. J. Jarnagin mobbed and hung, pronounce the statement made by the Knoxville Commercial as infamously false. J. W. Farmer, A. McPheeters, T. S. Kincaid. J. L. Bowman, W. D. Keeny. Calvin Adkins. James Butcher. James H. Farmer. George W. Leath. R. M. Bowren. R. M. Dail. B. D. Winn, Elijah Dizney, John Leinart, O. D. Lard. E. W. Bowren.

"I was present, and in attendance at the time sty ed above, and in company with Judge Houk. I hear nothing of the kind mentioned in the above Card until I saw them in the Knoxville Commercia SAMUEL L. CHILDRESS.

Attorney General. Justice to all men requires that I should make the following statement: I was present at the time Dick Jarnagin or to insult him except a man by the name of McCoy. About the time I left the Court House John Woods stepped up and enquired What was up." Some person told him they were about to mob Dick Jarnagin. Woods said hugues ed they would not do that; and just then Judge Houk came out at the door, and remarked to Woods in a localer manner as I then and still understand n a jocular manner, as I then and still understand it, that if they wanted to he and Jarnsgin could both be mobbed. I did not then, nor do I now hink Judge Houk had any intention of mobbing larnagin, or interfering with him in any way. make this statement to let the people know the factas they are, and to do justice to all parties. D. A CARPENTER.

Sheriff of Anderson County. The disloyal, treasonable, small-fry, peneroyl ariscratic Commercial, having made so grave a charge oon me, will certainly publish this communication. one thing is certain, if the "male spider" of the mmercial has the honor of a first, or even a third sss chicken thief, he will insert this, my defence to his infamous attack. In the future no honest man can believe anything this lying Commercial says Believing the abuse of such papers to be more than half praise, I cease further to notice thieves and perjured villains, as they are always ready to add the crime of treason, provided they are invited to the parlor of a negro lord. L. C. HOUK.

THE SOUTHERN RADICALS. Call for a Convention of Southern Unionists. The Meeting to be Held in Indepen-the Loyalists of the South: The great issue is upon us! The majority in Con ss, and its supporters, firmly declare that "th ights of the citizens enumerated in the Constitu on, and established by the supreme law, must b naintained inviolate.

Rebels and rebel sympathizers assert that the ights of the citizens must be left to the States alone, and under such regulations as the respective State ose voluntarily to prescribe." We have seen this doctrine of State sovereign arried out in its practical results until all authorit n Congress was denied, the Union temporarily d stroyed, the constitutional rights of the citizens the South nearly annibilated, and the land desola by civil war. The time has come when the restructure of So State government must be laid on constitution ciples, or the despotism, grown up under a trocious leadership, be permitted to remain. W low of no other plan than that Congress, unde ts constitutional powers, shall now exercise its au rity to establish the principle whereby protection made co-extensive with citizenship. We maintain that no State, either by its organi w or legislation, can make transgression on the ghts of the citizen legitimate. We demand an you to concur in demanding protection to ever of the great Republic on the basis of equali ore the law; and further, that no State govern at should be recognized as legitimate under th tution in so far as it does not by its organ make impartial protection full and complete Under the doctrine of "State sovereignty," s in the foreground, controlling Southern Legures, and embittered by disappointment in the nes to destroy the Union, there will be no safety the loyal element of the South.
